

DAILY, Tri-Weekly, and Weekly.
THOMSON & ROBERTS, PROP'R.
OFFICE—Myers' Block, Main St.

TERMS:
DAILY, by carrier, per year, $10.00
TRI-WEEKLY, " " " 6.00
WEEKLY, " " " 3.00

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

No Paper To-Morrow.—As all business is to be suspended to-morrow out of respect to the memory of the Chief Magistrate of the Nation, no paper will be issued from this office to-morrow evening.

The News.

Secretary Seward's condition is still reported favorable. He has been informed of the President's death, and of the attempt upon his own life, and that of his son, and was profoundly shocked thereat. The assassins are still at large though $30,000 are offered for their apprehension. Fred Seward has recovered his consciousness, and some hopes are entertained of his recovery. A Washington paper states that a regular conspiracy existed to assassinate every member of Mr. Lincoln's Cabinet, including the Vice President.

It is stated upon what seems to be good authority although not officially announced, that the rebel Johnston has surrendered his whole force to General Sherman. The rebel Lyon is said to have also surrendered.

Le turned over about 30,000 men to Gen. Grant. Our loss since the first attack on Petersburg and Richmond began, is set down at 10,000.

Gold closed at 45 $\frac{1}{2}$ .

Joy Turned to Mourning.

President Lincoln lies cold and stiff in his coffin at the White House. In the prime of life, in perfect health, when just entering upon the second term of his high office after passing through four years of terrible civil war, he is struck down by the bloody hand of an assassin. The death of a great and wise ruler is a sad event in the history of any people at any time, but when the fierce storms that lie in ambush on the great deep, carry the ship on to an iron bound coast amidst the hungry breakers, to lose the experienced captain overboard then, is indeed a dire calamity.

No wonder that one cannot think or talk of anything but the tragic death of Abraham Lincoln. The last thought at night and the first in the morning is connected with our sad national bereavement. Every paper that we take up is draped in mourning, and every pen and tongue seeks to give expression to the sorrow that all feel but which none have the power to tell. The whole sad occurrence seems like the frightful phantasm of some horrid dream, too shocking for reality, and which we hope will pass away on the morrow. The tears we shed are not for Abraham Lincoln—not for his memory nor his fame, for "his death fills the climax of story—He went with his old strife, from glory to glory."

But it is for the American people and the country that so much needed his services in their critical fortunes, that patriotic hearts are filled with grief:

"Follow now, as ye list: The first mourner to-day Is he whose father is taken away! Not for him only, departing leaves millions in tears: For him—no, not for him—years and years! For the stars on our banner, grown dim and dark; Let us weep in our darkness—but weep not for him: For him—who ascended Fane's ladder so high—from the round at the top he has stepped to the sky!"

An Awful Wish Gratified.

The rebel sympathizers at the North have much to answer for in the way of prolonging this cruel war, and are not altogether innocent of Mr. Lincoln's blood. During the last Presidential election, the editor of the La Crosse Democrat deliberately put the following fearful wish in type:

"If Lincoln is re-elected to mitigate for the next four years, we trust that some bold hand will pierce his heart with a dagger point for the public good."

The Beaver Dam Argus, another copperhead sheet, justified the above infamous declaration of the La Crosse Democrat, and added:

"History shows several instances where the people have only been saved by the assassination of their leaders, and history may repeat itself in this country. The time may come when it will be absolutely necessary that the people do away with such rulers the quickest way possible."

Thus it will be seen that J. Wilkes Booth is not the only assassin that had murder in his black heart, but that he has merely struck the blow that others suggested and encouraged. When leading editors coolly advise the assassination of the constitutionally elected officers of the government, the reckless and daring hand will easily be found to lift the dagger or pull the fatal trigger.

The only personal attack ever before made upon a president of the United States was during the presidency of Gen. Jackson. The president was descending the steps of the capitol when he was approached by a man by the name of Lawrence who apparently intended to kill him. Lawrence proved to be a lunatic and was discharged upon that ground.

Our New Post Office.—Postmaster Burgess is entitled to the thanks of the entire community for the very happy change he has effected in the location of the post office. In the place of a cramped and inconvenient room, the present one is large and commodious. It is almost a credit to the place, while the old site wasn't much.

It has been estimated by the city assessor of Richmond, that the loss by the recent fire there, ordered by Breckinridge and Ewell, will reach the enormous sum of $30,000,000. It includes dwellings, stores, tobacco, cotton, &c.

Treasor of the New England states, New Hampshire, Vermont and Rhode Island, has a Governor Smith.

It is said that Forney, of the Washington Chronicle is about to establish a newspaper in Richmond.

The Janesville Gazette.

VOLUME 9.

JANESVILLE, WIS., TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 1865.

NUMBER 50.

CITY AND COUNTY.

A DAY OF FASTING AND PRAYER.

The State of Wisconsin.—By James T. Lewis, Governor.—A Proclamation.

THE OBSERVANCE OF TO-MORROW.

The Programme of Exercises.

At a meeting of the citizens held in the Common Council Room this afternoon to take measures for the proper observance of the day set apart for the funeral of the President, on motion of John R. Bennett, Esq., Mr. Alexander Graham was called to the chair and E. S. Barrows appointed Secretary.

On motion of Hon. I. C. Sloan, it was resolved that we have a procession.

On motion of H. Richardson, it was resolved that the Masons, Odd Fellows, Sons of Temperance and all other civic societies be invited to join the procession with such insignia of their respective orders as they may deem appropriate for the occasion.

On motion, it was resolved that the citizens of Janesville and Rock county be invited to join in the procession and take part in the exercises of the occasion.

Upon motion of Dr. Treat it was resolved as the sense of this meeting that we recommend in accordance with the proclamation of the Mayor, that all places of business and all saloons be closed from 10 until 2.

Upon motion of John R. Bennett, the chair appointed the following persons as committee of arrangements: John R. Bennett, I. C. Sloan, H. Richardson, Dr. Treat, T. J. Wright, E. S. Barrows and S. J. M. Putnam.

On motion of I. C. Sloan the chair appointed the following persons to act as Marshals: James Sutherland, R. B. Treat, Dr. Robinson, S. J. M. Putnam, S. Holdredge, Jr., and Dr. Whiting.

On motion the chairman was added to the above.

E. S. BARROWS.

Sec'y.

Order of Procession.

The Committee of arrangements recommend the following order of the procession:

Military Escort.

Band.

Marshals.

Clergy in attendance.

Pall bearers.

Hearse.

Mayor and Common Council.

Firemen.

Societies.

Citizens.

At the funeral services in honor of the memory of President Lincoln to-morrow, at Hyatt House Hall, no gentleman will be admitted to the Hall, except in the procession.

The procession will form on the corner of Court and Main streets at 11 before 11 o'clock a.m., so that it will be ready to move at 11 o'clock precisely.

It is hoped that all citizens of Rock county, who may receive this notice will, as an expression of their profound sorrow for the great loss which has fallen upon the nation, join in the ceremonies to-morrow.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.—The members of the several companies comprising the Fire Department of this city, will meet at their several houses at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, for the purpose of joining in the procession and attending the funeral services of President Lincoln.

S. FOORD, Jr., Chief Engineer.

April 18, 1865.

SCHOOL COMMISSIONERS.—The Board of School Commissioners for this city, consisting of Messrs. Thompson, Jones, Hollidge, Pendleton and Dearborn, met this forenoon and organized by the choice of O. D. Dearborn for President, and B. F. Pendleton for Clerk, for the ensuing year.

In accordance with orders from the Post Master General, the Postoffice will be closed between the hours of 11 a.m. and 3 p.m., during the funeral service of the President.

J. M. BURCESS, Post Master.

WATER WORKS NO. 2.—There will be a special meeting of this Company at the Engine House this evening at 7 $\frac{1}{2}$  o'clock. By order of the Foreman.

J. C. SPENCER, Sec'y pro tem.

April 18, 1865.

GENTLEMEN OF THE COMMON COUNCIL.—The kind manner in which you have been pleased to speak of me in the resolution just passed, is quite unexpected, and, I fear, undeserved. Whatever of order and decorum has prevailed here, has been owing principally to the uniform observance of your part, of the rules adopted by you for the government of the Council, rather than to any effort of mine.

Gentlemen, your course during the past year has made the details of the chair easy, and I thank you and each of you for the uniform kindness and support I have received at your hands. Those of you, gentlemen, whose connection with this Council closes with this meeting, I desire to express my best wishes for your future life and happiness, and, to those that remain I ask in the future as in the past, that I may have your confidence and support. Again, gentlemen, I thank you.

Alderman Graham introduced the following resolution:

Resolved: That the thanks of the Council are hereby tendered to its President, Alderman Burnham, and to G. H. Williston, Clerk, for the very able manner in which they have discharged the duties of their respective posts.

Some action was then taken in reference to the observance of the day set apart for the President's funeral, when the Council adjourned sic dic.

FORCED SALE.—The splendid stock of Evergreen and Ornamental and Shrubbery at the Rock County Nursery, are now on sale and must be sold. The lot of 30 acres on which the nursery stands is also offered on reasonable terms. For information see the nursery 1 miles South of the Fair Grounds or at the office, for price of land, or by letter to C. Colby, South Park, N. B.—These trees, &c., have been four times transplanted and have matured fibrous roots and are well suited for planting in full symmetry. Liberal deduction made for large lots.

ARNOLD & CO.

April 18, 1865.

MACARONI AND VERMICILLI, PHILADELPHIA DRUGSTORE.

TEAS! TEAS! TEAS! For sale very choice green and black TEAS! For sale at less than gold price, at the PHILADELPHIA DRUGSTORE.

Harmony, April 17, 1865.

W. H. DAWLEY.

AN ATTRACTIVE SALE OF TREES.—Mr. C. Colby, of the Rock County Nursery offers for sale his entire stock of ornamental tree and shrubbery. It embraces many very beautiful things, and as it is to be closed out at all hazards, those in want of any thing of the kind will find this a rare opportunity to supply themselves at very low figures. An advertisement in another column sets forth the merits of the articles offered for sale.

MACARONI AND VERMICILLI, PHILADELPHIA DRUGSTORE.

TEAS! TEAS! TEAS! For sale very choice green and black TEAS! For sale at less than gold price, at the PHILADELPHIA DRUGSTORE.

Harmony, April 17, 1865.

W. H. DAWLEY.

GRAND OPENING.

GENERAL STORE, KATZ & CO., Main St.

Signs Golden Sheep.

Janesville, April 18, 1865.

GRAND OPENING.

GENERAL STORE, KATZ & CO., Main St.

Signs Golden Sheep.

Janesville, April 18, 1865.

GRAND OPENING.

GENERAL STORE, KATZ & CO., Main St.

Signs Golden Sheep.

Janesville, April 18, 1865.

GRAND OPENING.

GENERAL STORE, KATZ & CO., Main St.

Signs Golden Sheep.

Janesville, April 18, 1865.

GRAND OPENING.

GENERAL STORE, KATZ & CO., Main St.

Signs Golden Sheep.

Janesville, April 18, 1865.

GRAND OPENING.

GENERAL STORE, KATZ & CO., Main St.

Signs Golden Sheep.

Janesville, April 18, 1865.

GRAND OPENING.

GENERAL STORE, KATZ & CO., Main St.

Signs Golden Sheep.

Janesville, April 18, 1865.

GRAND OPENING.

GENERAL STORE, KATZ & CO., Main St.

Signs Golden Sheep.

Janesville, April 18, 1865.

GRAND OPENING.

GENERAL STORE, KATZ & CO., Main St.

Signs Golden Sheep.

Janesville, April 18, 1865.

GRAND OPENING.

GENERAL STORE, KATZ & CO., Main St.

Signs Golden Sheep.

Janesville, April 18, 1865.

GRAND OPENING.

GENERAL STORE, KATZ & CO., Main St.

Signs Golden Sheep.

Janesville, April 18, 1865.

GRAND OPENING.

GENERAL STORE, KATZ & CO., Main St.

Signs Golden Sheep.

Janesville, April 18, 1865.

GRAND OPENING.

GENERAL STORE, KATZ & CO., Main St.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 1865.

Madison Correspondence.

(From our Special Correspondent)

MADISON, April 15, 1865.

Editor's Gazette.—That the legislature adjourned without disposing of the land grant is undoubtedly known to you and your readers. It is doubtful if the conflicting interests and prejudices surrounding the disposition of the grant could have been overcome during the session just closed so as to allow of decisive action, but certainly the efforts of Palmer of Milwaukee, and others were not directed towards any such end. When they found that their pet project of an air line road from Milwaukee to Fund du Lac could not be carried, they worked to prevent any other disposition of the grant, and their efforts in this line were completely successful. Palmer and his associates were a full match for the managers of the Portage route and checked their opposition at will. This was plainly evidenced on one of the first test votes when the Portage managers found themselves unable to force the question, by reason of two or three members reckoned in their compromise persistently voting the wrong way. The disposition of the grant will be a main issue in the fall election, and the people will be directly appealed to, to decide on the best route for the interests of the people and the State at large.

The dreadful news from Washington has filled the city with mourning. The stores, public buildings and many private houses are draped with mourning, and every countenance shows the impress of the saddened time. To-morrow, with the national flag draped in mourning, at half past the Capitol, and with a gun fired at half-hour intervals from sunrise to sunset, a sorrowing people will think of the sudden and untimely death of their chosen and devoted head, who enters the portals of eternity as the hours of victory fall on the national arms and brighten the future of a determined people, "who know their rights and knowing dare maintain."

YANKEE THISTLE.

Are they not "Honorable Men?"

BY JOSEPH ADAMS.

(For the Gazette.)

No man who loves his country and the old flag, can fail to see and feel, that, since the surrender of Lee, there has been a growing sentiment of leniency toward leading rebels.

What earnest patriot does not regret this? In it is our greatest danger. "Mercy" is true, "is an attribute of God," but so is justice, and in so far as this nation can exercise the former without getting the imperative demands of the latter, all will be well. But if, in our exercise of the one, we forget the execution of the other, woe betide this people! "Vain, and worse than vain, will have been the four long years of anguish and blood through which we have passed."

The address of Col. Noble's was eloquent, speaking forth the sentiments of every true and loyal heart, and was received by us with many deafening cheers. The iron rod of imprisonment and abuse could not crush the patriotic fire that burned in the heart of every captive, contrary to their (our guards) wishes and their orders to desist. The Col. finished his address, when we sang "up with the stars and down with the traitors," and then, with three rousing cheers, our celebration of the birth of the great Washington was ended.

Thinking these resolutions might be interesting to your many readers and my many friends of old Rock, I send them to you for publication, if not infringing upon your time and paper.

I am very respectfully yours,

SAMUEL C. WAGNER,
Lt. Co., G. 13th Wis. Vol. Inf'y.
Prisoner at Andersonville, Ga.

Discredited Wisconsin Currency.

STATE TREASURER'S OFFICE, MADISON, April 13th, 1865.—In accordance with the provision of Chapter 282 of the General Laws of 1865, receipts for Wisconsin money deposited in the State Treasury will be issued, drawing 7 per cent. interest and reduced for all State taxes for the year 1865 and subsequent years.

The notes of all banks that are now receiving their circulating notes at par and the notes of all banks that have assigned their Wisconsin bonds to the State, as provided in said chapter 282 will be received on deposit and receipts as above stated.

The Shawanaw Bank is the only one that has assigned its Wisconsin bonds to the State.

Notice will be given in the official State paper, the Wisconsin State Journal at Madison, whenever other banks make assignment of their Wisconsin bonds.

SAMUEL D. HASTINGS,
State Treasurer.

FAST HORSES.—About one year since, Ten Broek, the celebrated owner of racing horses, offered, through Wilkes' Spirit of the Times, $20,000 to any person who would deliver inside the Federal lines his four horses that were in the Southern Confederacy. Lt. A. Ware, Jr., A. G., 4th division, 17th corps, writes the Boston Post, to a gentleman of Boston, from Goldsboro, with regard to these horses as follows: "You will remember that Ten Broek offered a year ago, through the Spirit of the Times, $20,000, or $5,000 each for his four horses that were within the Confederate lines. Well, we have found and taken the horses." Their names were "Conqueror," "Kemble," "Lady Woodland," and "Albion." Gen. Logan captured two, Lt. Col. Hickenloppe captured one, and a Surgeon another. I think the horses will not prove of much value to Ten Broek."

Until we do this, we need not hope for peace or prosperity, for hope against reason will be in vain.

God lives. Have we not yet learned the lesson which for four long, bloody years He has been teaching?

Janesville, April 15.

At the mass meeting in Brooklyn, to celebrate the victories, Rev. Dr. Willets told this story: In a Sunday School the other day, while the recitation of verses of scripture was in progress, a little lad suddenly exclaimed: "I know a verse!" He was desired to recite it, and did so thus: "If any one attempts to haul down the American flag, shoot him on the spot." And that, said the speaker, "is the gospel according to General Dix."

A Voice from Andersonville.

We publish below a communication from the prison pen of Andersonville, giving an account of a public meeting held there on the Anniversary of Washington's birthday. These resolutions, written and adopted under circumstances that must have tried the souls of those brave men, as men's souls were never tried before, in the ring of the most sublime patriotism in them, and clearly show us by what an daunted heroism our soldiers are inspired.

Andersonville, Georgia, April 15, 1865.

At a meeting of the Federal officers, prisoners of war at the above named place, at which Maj. J. W. Corliss, 1st Ohio Inf'y, presided, and Capt. W. E. Coleman, 40th Ind. Inf'y, was Secretary, the following preamble and resolutions were framed and adopted:

WHEREAS, A great rebellion against our nationality and constitutional rights, began and pursued in the interests of slavery and ambitious conspirators, holds us captives out of the gallant host of brethren fighting down its army, we here right beside that field of death where he buried fifteen thousand of our comrades in arms, the victims of cruelty only equalled by the terrors of the Inquisition, the horrors of the middle passage, and the black hole of Calcutta. Therefore,

Resolved That we render to Almighty God our fervent thanks that he has after shielding us through great perils in arms, permitted us here to celebrate the birth of the great Washington, and pray him to inspirit us and all to hold a closer walk in his pathways of patience, endurance and exalted virtues.

Resolved That we deem this place and day, a fit time to record anew our devotion to that flag in whose defense we took up arms, and that constitution and nationality which owe to Washington so much of their origin and well being, and to that equality of right, God's gift to man, which this rebellion has given us the opportunity to make practicable over every inch of the Republic.

Resolved That we extend our profound sympathy to the relatives and friends of that noble army of martyrs who in this Valley of Death miserably perished from exposure, starvation and inhumanity, and that we make our countrymen to raise over their lonely graves, as over the dead in battle, a monumental record of their endurance and their devotion.

Resolved That the Congress which has just closed its session by the abolition of slavery throughout the republic, and the refusal to the rebellion of any terms but unconditional submission, has made for itself and the country an honorable and immortal record.

Resolved That the refusal of the Senate to appoint a Mexican Minister, utters the determination of the American people to permit no monarchical colonization on this continent, which resolve we pledge ourselves to God and our country to uphold in arms.

Resolved That the distinguished commanders of the army and navy have our highest confidence and admiration for their patriotic virtue and ability.

Resolved That the Copperheads and rebel sympathizers of the North, are more detestable than the traitors of the Revolution, and are only second to rebels in arms whose disloyalty to the cause of human freedom and the high purpose and destiny of republican institutions, they only lack the courage to imitate.

Resolved That we tender the thanks of this meeting to Col. Wm. H. Nibley, 17th Conn. Vol., for the able and elegant address delivered on the occasion.

The address of Col. Nibley's was eloquent, speaking forth the sentiments of every true and loyal heart, and was received by us with many deafening cheers. The iron rod of imprisonment and abuse could not crush the patriotic fire that burned in the heart of every captive, contrary to their (our guards) wishes and their orders to desist. The Col. finished his address, when we sang "up with the stars and down with the traitors," and then, with three rousing cheers, our celebration of the birth of the great Washington was ended.

Thinking these resolutions might be interesting to your many readers and my many friends of old Rock, I send them to you for publication, if not infringing upon your time and paper.

I am very respectfully yours,

SAMUEL C. WAGNER,
Lt. Co., G. 13th Wis. Vol. Inf'y.
Prisoner at Andersonville, Ga.

Discredited Wisconsin Currency.

STATE TREASURER'S OFFICE, MADISON, April 13th, 1865.—In accordance with the provision of Chapter 282 of the General Laws of 1865, receipts for Wisconsin money deposited in the State Treasury will be issued, drawing 7 per cent. interest and reduced for all State taxes for the year 1865 and subsequent years.

The notes of all banks that are now receiving their circulating notes at par and the notes of all banks that have assigned their Wisconsin bonds to the State, as provided in said chapter 282 will be received on deposit and receipts as above stated.

The Shawanaw Bank is the only one that has assigned its Wisconsin bonds to the State.

Notice will be given in the official State paper, the Wisconsin State Journal at Madison, whenever other banks make assignment of their Wisconsin bonds.

SAMUEL D. HASTINGS,
State Treasurer.

FAST HORSES.—About one year since, Ten Broek, the celebrated owner of racing horses, offered, through Wilkes' Spirit of the Times, $20,000 to any person who would deliver inside the Federal lines his four horses that were in the Southern Confederacy. Lt. A. Ware, Jr., A. G., 4th division, 17th corps, writes the Boston Post, to a gentleman of Boston, from Goldsboro, with regard to these horses as follows: "You will remember that Ten Broek offered a year ago, through the Spirit of the Times, $20,000, or $5,000 each for his four horses that were within the Confederate lines. Well, we have found and taken the horses." Their names were "Conqueror," "Kembla," "Lady Woodland," and "Albion." Gen. Logan captured two, Lt. Col. Hickenloppe captured one, and a Surgeon another. I think the horses will not prove of much value to Ten Broek."

Until we do this, we need not hope for peace or prosperity, for hope against reason will be in vain.

God lives. Have we not yet learned the lesson which for four long, bloody years He has been teaching?

Janesville, April 15.

At the mass meeting in Brooklyn, to celebrate the victories, Rev. Dr. Willets told this story: In a Sunday School the other day, while the recitation of verses of scripture was in progress, a little lad suddenly exclaimed: "I know a verse!"

He was desired to recite it, and did so thus: "If any one attempts to haul down the American flag, shoot him on the spot."

And that, said the speaker, "is the gospel according to General Dix."

COMPLETE DETAILS OF THE GREAT CALAMITY.

The Last Hours of Abraham Lincoln.—The Death Bed of a Great and Good Man.

The Herald's Washington special sends details of events preceding the assassination of the President and his last hours. About half past seven p. m., Hon. Geo. Ashmun called at the White House and was ushered into the parlor, where Schuyler Colfax was seated waiting for a short interview with the President on business which had a bearing upon his proposed overland trip. A few moments elapsed when President Lincoln entered the room, and a short conversation took place touching upon various matters. The President was in a happy and jovial frame of mind, Mr. Ashmun desired to see him on special business, and there being no time to attend to it then, the President took out a card, and, placing it on his knee, wrote as follows:

"Allow Mr. Ashmun and friend to come to me at 9 a. m., to-morrow."

These were the last words that he penned. It was the last time that he signed his name to any order, document or message. Mr. Lincoln firmly stated that he must go to the theatre, and warmly pressed Speaker Colfax and Mr. Ashmun to accompany him, but they excused themselves on the score of previous engagements.

At about eight p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln started for the carriage, the latter taking the arm of Mr. Ashmun, and the President and Mr. Colfax walking together. As soon as the President and Mrs. Lincoln were seated in the carriage the latter gave orders to the coachman to drive around to Senator Harris' residence for Mrs. Harris. As the carriage rolled away they said, "Good bye, good bye," and Messrs. Ashmun and Colfax and the carriage had in a moment more disappeared from the ground in front of the White House. A few moments more a party of four persons—the President and Mrs. Lincoln, Miss Harris and Mr. Rathbone, of Albany, stepson of Senator Harris—arrived at the Theatre, and entered the front left hand upper private box. A moment before the attack was made, the President was leaning forward, resting his head on his hand, in his accustomed careless way, his eyes bent upon the stage, and enjoying a hearty laugh.

Mrs. Harris' statement

Miss Harris, who was in the box with the President, makes the following statement: "About an hour before the commission of the deed, the assassin came to the door of the box and looked in to take a survey of the position of its occupants. It was supposed at the time that it was either a mistake or the exercise of impudent curiosity. The circumstance attracted no particular attention at the time. Upon his entering the box again, Major Rathbone rose and asked the intruder his business. He rushed past the Major without making a reply, and placing his pistol close to the back of the President's head, almost in contact with it, fired, and instantly sprang upon the cushioned baluster of the box, when he made a backward plunge with his knife, aimed at the face or breast of Mr. Lincoln, Major Rathbone, springing forward to protect the President, received a stab in his arm. The murderer then jumped upon the stage and effected his escape. The rapidity with which all was committed was astounding. Mrs. Lincoln saw the form of the person go from the box, and thought Mr. Lincoln had fallen out, and looked to see if she could see him on the floor, and barely saw the culprit jump on the stage. When all was over she turned her eyes to the box and saw Mr. Lincoln's head had dropped forward upon his breast, and he was dead.

Mr. Lincoln saw the form of the person go from the box, and thought Mr. Lincoln had fallen out, and looked to see if she could see him on the floor, and barely saw the culprit jump on the stage. When all was over she turned her eyes to the box and saw Mr. Lincoln's head had dropped forward upon his breast, and he was dead.

Mr. Lincoln saw the form of the person go from the box, and thought Mr. Lincoln had fallen out, and looked to see if she could see him on the floor, and barely saw the culprit jump on the stage. When all was over she turned her eyes to the box and saw Mr. Lincoln's head had dropped forward upon his breast, and he was dead.

Mr. Lincoln saw the form of the person go from the box, and thought Mr. Lincoln had fallen out, and looked to see if she could see him on the floor, and barely saw the culprit jump on the stage. When all was over she turned her eyes to the box and saw Mr. Lincoln's head had dropped forward upon his breast, and he was dead.

Mr. Lincoln saw the form of the person go from the box, and thought Mr. Lincoln had fallen out, and looked to see if she could see him on the floor, and barely saw the culprit jump on the stage. When all was over she turned her eyes to the box and saw Mr. Lincoln's head had dropped forward upon his breast, and he was dead.

Mr. Lincoln saw the form of the person go from the box, and thought Mr. Lincoln had fallen out, and looked to see if she could see him on the floor, and barely saw the culprit jump on the stage. When all was over she turned her eyes to the box and saw Mr. Lincoln's head had dropped forward upon his breast, and he was dead.

Mr. Lincoln saw the form of the person go from the box, and thought Mr. Lincoln had fallen out, and looked to see if she could see him on the floor, and barely saw the culprit jump on the stage. When all was over she turned her eyes to the box and saw Mr. Lincoln's head had dropped forward upon his breast, and he was dead.

Mr. Lincoln saw the form of the person go from the box, and thought Mr. Lincoln had fallen out, and looked to see if she could see him on the floor, and barely saw the culprit jump on the stage. When all was over she turned her eyes to the box and saw Mr. Lincoln's head had dropped forward upon his breast, and he was dead.

Mr. Lincoln saw the form of the person go from the box, and thought Mr. Lincoln had fallen out, and looked to see if she could see him on the floor, and barely saw the culprit jump on the stage. When all was over she turned her eyes to the box and saw Mr. Lincoln's head had dropped forward upon his breast, and he was dead.

Mr. Lincoln saw the form of the person go from the box, and thought Mr. Lincoln had fallen out, and looked to see if she could see him on the floor, and barely saw the culprit jump on the stage. When all was over she turned her eyes to the box and saw Mr. Lincoln's head had dropped forward upon his breast, and he was dead.

Mr. Lincoln saw the form of the person go from the box, and thought Mr. Lincoln had fallen out, and looked to see if she could see him on the floor, and barely saw the culprit jump on the stage. When all was over she turned her eyes to the box and saw Mr. Lincoln's head had dropped forward upon his breast, and he was dead.

Mr. Lincoln saw the form of the person go from the box, and thought Mr. Lincoln had fallen out, and looked to see if she could see him on the floor, and barely saw the culprit jump on the stage. When all was over she turned her eyes to the box and saw Mr. Lincoln's head had dropped forward upon his breast, and he was dead.

Mr. Lincoln saw the form of the person go from the box, and thought Mr. Lincoln had fallen out, and looked to see if she could see him on the floor, and barely saw the culprit jump on the stage. When all was over she turned her eyes to the box and saw Mr. Lincoln's head had dropped forward upon his breast, and he was dead.

Mr. Lincoln saw the form of the person go from the box, and thought Mr. Lincoln had fallen out, and looked to see if she could see him on the floor, and barely saw the culprit jump on the stage. When all was over she turned her eyes to the box and saw Mr. Lincoln's head had dropped forward upon his breast, and he was dead.

Mr. Lincoln saw the form of the person go from the box, and thought Mr. Lincoln had fallen out, and looked to see if she could see him on the floor, and barely saw the culprit jump on the stage. When all was over she turned her eyes to the box and saw Mr. Lincoln's head had dropped forward upon his breast, and he was dead.

Mr. Lincoln saw the form of the person go from the box, and thought Mr. Lincoln had fallen out, and looked to see if she could see him on the floor, and barely saw the culprit jump on the stage. When all was over she turned her eyes to the box and saw Mr. Lincoln's head had dropped forward upon his breast, and he was dead.

Mr. Lincoln saw the form of the person go from the box, and thought Mr. Lincoln had fallen out, and looked to see if she could see him on the floor, and barely saw the culprit jump on the stage. When all was over she turned her eyes to the box and saw Mr. Lincoln's head had dropped forward upon his breast, and he was dead.

Mr. Lincoln saw the form of the person go from the box, and thought Mr. Lincoln had fallen out, and looked to see if she could see him on the floor, and barely saw the culprit jump on the stage. When all was over she turned her eyes to the box and saw Mr. Lincoln's head had dropped forward upon his breast, and he was dead.

Mr. Lincoln saw the form of the person go from the box, and thought Mr. Lincoln had fallen out, and looked to see if she could see him on the floor, and barely saw the culprit jump on the stage. When all was over she turned her eyes to the box and saw Mr. Lincoln's head had dropped forward upon his breast, and he was dead.

Mr. Lincoln saw the form of the person go from the box, and thought Mr. Lincoln had fallen out, and looked to see if she could see him on the floor, and barely saw the culprit jump on the stage. When all was over she turned her eyes to the box and saw Mr. Lincoln's head had dropped forward upon his breast, and he was dead.

Mr. Lincoln saw the form of the person go from the box, and thought Mr

THE JANESEVILLE GAZETTE.

Special Notices.

REMOVAL 1

Mr. M. E. JOHNSON has removed to Jackman & Smith's New Building, over the Rock County Bank, where he will wait upon his friends and customers in my department of Dentistry.

HAIR DYE: HAIR DYE:

Bachelder's Hair Dye is the best in the world. The only true and perfect Dye—Harmless—Instantaneous and Reliable—produces a splendid Black or Natural Brown—removes the ill effects of Bad Dyes, and frequently restores the original color. Sold by all Drug-gists. The genuine is signed, W. A. Bachelder, S. Barlow street, New York. janevilles

TO CONSUMPTIVES.

COLGATE'S HONEY SOAP.

Pure Collected Toilet Soap, in each universal soap, is made from the choicest materials, is mild and emollient [sic] to the name, fragrantly scented, and extremely beneficial in its action upon the skin. For sale by all Druggists and Fancy goods Dealers.

janevilles

A REMEDY FOR THE PILLS.

It is a blessing to the suffering to know that we have an effectual cure for that truly troublesome disease. Mr. J. P. Hazard, of 162 Second street, Cincinnati, takes great pleasure in informing all who are suffering with pills that he used a small quantity of Dr. Strickland's Pills remedy, and it effected a permanent cure. This seems to be the case with all who make use of this splendid preparation. It is manufactured at No. 6 East Fourth street, Cincinnati, and sold by all Druggists.

WM. BOOTH general agent for Wisconsin.

E. F. COINELL wholesale agent for Wisconsin.

655 Main Street, Milwaukee.

Miscellaneous.

PAPER HANGINGS.

PAPER HANGINGS!

of the season, embracing some of the

FINEST STYLES

Ever exhibited in Janesville, just received and for sale cheap at

SUTHERLAND'S.

PICTURE FRAMES.

A fine assortment of both

RUSTIC AND OVAL FRAMES,

Just received, and for sale cheap at

SUTHERLAND'S

Bookstore.

Ever exhibited in Janesville, just received and for sale cheap at

PORTER'S

Photograph Parlors."

This has now become one of the fixed institutions of Janesville. The unbounded success which has attended these rooms since their opening, has more than met the most sanguine expectations, and a new "bill" seems to be demanded.

Extending thanks to the entire community for

THE LIBERAL PATRONAGE

bestowed upon this institution, and the just appreciation given to our

WORKS OF ART.

We solicit even a larger patronage to enable us by an increase of business to keep the prices off.

Pictures Within the Reach of All.

For it is known that, despite that person who thinks pictures are high-figures, good pictures are the cheapest commodity in market.

We also assure you, that, all though, we cannot promise always to do it, but we will promise always to give you a good, if-else picture, and do it with the least possible trouble to the sitter.

STEREOSCOPES

and Stereoscopic views of local scenes for sale at these rooms. We are also prepared to take Stereoscopic pictures of single objects or groups,

From Life or Scenes in Nature.

This is the only gallery in town, perhaps, where photographs can be made with Stereoscopic effect.

COME ONE, COME ALL,

and when you fail to get satisfactory pictures of yourselves or your friends elsewhere,

TRY PORTER.

Janesville, August 1st, 1864. 885 Main Street.

TRAVELLING BAGS,

Morroco Wallets,

Buckskin Purses,

Cafe Tuck Wallets,

Velvet Chain I urses,

Lubins' Perfumes and Extracts,

Woolworth's Perfumes and Extracts,

Mad'm Dupont's Hank' Extracts;

Talman & Collins' Perfumes,

Phon's Night Blooming Currus,

Night Blooming Currus Pomade

Night Blooming Currus Hair Oil,

Florida Water, Colognes,

Puff Boxes, Fine Pomades,

Combs, Brushes, Toilette Soaps,

Photographic Albums,

And Fancy Goods Generally

42nd Street, At Camp's Drug Store.

PUBLIC PRINTING—From June

1863, to December 31, 1866. Seal Proposals will be received in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Wisconsin, until the 27th day of April, 1865, at 12 o'clock noon, for the use of government, all printing and binding works required by the Legislature for its use, or for the use of the several state and local departments therof, including all blank books, blue books, and every other service, Secretary of State, State Treasurer, Attorney General, State Auditor, State Superintendent, State Prison Commissioners, Circuit Court, Military, as well as every other department of state, in a manner pertaining to them, or any of them, as well as printing and binding works, or a prescription for which the state may be liable to pay, for advertising and publication of the laws directed by the Legislature, of the year 1860, to be done in the official state paper, and in publishing materials for all such printing and binding, from the 1st day of June, 1863, to the 31st day of December, 1866, inclusive, agreeably to the provisions of chapter 312 of the general laws of 1863, and in accordance with the provisions on file in the office of the Secretary of State. Dated at Madison, Wisconsin, this 23rd day of March, 1863.

JAMES T. LEWIS,

Governor,

LUCAS FAIRCHILD,

Secretary of State,

WINFIELD SMITH,

Attorney General,

Commissioners for letting contracts for the public printing.

Business Cards.

BENNETT & CASSODAY, Attorneys at Law, Office Lappin's Block, Janesville, Wis.

S. P. COLE, Homeopath and Surgeon, Office and residence five doors south of Rock Church.

WILLARD MERRILL, Attorney at Law and United States Court Commissioner, Office, Lappin's Block, Janesville, Wis.

L. J. RICHARDSON, Physician and Surgeon, Office and residence corner of Academy and Wall Streets, Rockford.

CHARLES A. HUDSON, Attorney and Counselor at Law, Office in Empire block, Janesville, Wis., June 24th, 1861.

ELDERIDGE & PEASE, Attorneys and Counselors at Law, Office in Janesville's block, Room No. 5 and 6, Janesville, Wis.

J. S. PEAS, J. S. Peas, Janesville, Wis.

S. L. LORD, Physician and Surgeon, Office in May's block opposite the Myers House, Residence on Court street, fifth house East of Christ Church.

H. A. FATTERSON, Attorney at Law and Justice of the Peace, Janesville, Wis., Office in Main street, nearly opposite the American Express Office.

NEW YORK CASH STORE, Smith & Rossick, Wholesale and Retail dealers in Dry Goods, Crockery, Solar Lamp, Boots and Shoes, Hats and Caps, Bonnets, Ready Made Clothing, and every kind of merchandise at the very lowest cash price.

COUNTRY SURVEYOR AND CITY ENGINER, D. Locke, Office in Lappin's block, Janesville, Wis., No. 2, has no deputies.

E. B. QUINN, War Claim Agent, Madison, Wis., Extra compensation to each; Back Pay and Retirement, $5; Collector Back Pay and Retired Soldiers—Auditor's Warrants for Back Pay and money—State Aid for Families—Subsistence and other Military accounts.

Prepared only by A. PALMER & SON, Janesville, Wis. Price 50 Cts. Sold by Druggists.

Wholesale Agents in Chicago, Burnham & Vane Schack, 16 Lake St.

PICTURE FRAMES.

Ever exhibited in Janesville, just received and for sale cheap at

SUTHERLAND'S

Ever exhibited in Janesville, just received and for sale cheap at

PORTER'S

Photograph Parlors."

This has now become one of the fixed institutions of Janesville. The unbounded success which has attended these rooms since their opening, has more than met the most sanguine expectations, and a new "bill" seems to be demanded.

Extending thanks to the entire community for

THE LIBERAL PATRONAGE

bestowed upon this institution, and the just appreciation given to our

WORKS OF ART.

We solicit even a larger patronage to enable us by an increase of business to keep the prices off.

Pictures Within the Reach of All.

For it is known that, despite that person who thinks pictures are high-figures, good pictures are the cheapest commodity in market.

We also assure you, that, all though, we cannot promise always to do it, but we will promise always to give you a good, if-else picture, and do it with the least possible trouble to the sitter.

STEREOSCOPES

and Stereoscopic views of local scenes for sale at these rooms. We are also prepared to take Stereoscopic pictures of single objects or groups,

From Life or Scenes in Nature.

This is the only gallery in town, perhaps, where photographs can be made with Stereoscopic effect.

COME ONE, COME ALL,

and when you fail to get satisfactory pictures of yourselves or your friends elsewhere,

TRY PORTER.

Janesville, August 1st, 1864. 885 Main Street.

TRAVELLING BAGS,

Morroco Wallets,

Buckskin Purses,

Cafe Tuck Wallets,

Velvet Chain I urses,

Lubins' Perfumes and Extracts,

Woolworth's Perfumes and Extracts,

Mad'm Dupont's Hank' Extracts;

Talman & Collins' Perfumes,

Phon's Night Blooming Currus,

Night Blooming Currus Pomade

Night Blooming Currus Hair Oil,

Florida Water, Colognes,

Puff Boxes, Fine Pomades,

Combs, Brushes, Toilette Soaps,

Photographic Albums,

And Fancy Goods Generally

At Camp's Drug Store.

PUBLIC PRINTING—From June

1863, to December 31, 1866. Seal Proposals will be received in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Wisconsin, until the 27th day of April, 1865, at 12 o'clock noon, for the use of government, all printing and binding works required by the Legislature for its use, or for the use of the several state and local departments therof, including all blank books, blue books, and every other service, Secretary of State, State Treasurer, Attorney General, State Auditor, State Superintendent, State Prison Commissioners, Circuit Court, Military, as well as every other department of state, in a manner pertaining to them, or any of them, as well as printing and binding works, or a prescription for which the state may be liable to pay, for advertising and publication of the laws directed by the Legislature, of the year 1860, to be done in the official state paper, and in publishing materials for all such printing and binding, from the 1st day of June, 1863, to the 31st day of December, 1866, inclusive, agreeably to the provisions on file in the office of the Secretary of State. Dated at Madison, Wisconsin, this 23rd day of March, 1863.

JAMES T. LEWIS,

Governor,

LUCAS FAIRCHILD,

Secretary of State,

WINFIELD SMITH,

Attorney General,

Commissioners for letting contracts for the public printing.

REMOVING 1

Mr. M. E. JOHNSON has removed to Jackman & Smith's New Building, over the Rock County Bank, where he will wait upon his friends and customers in my department of Dentistry.

HAIR DYE: HAIR DYE:

Bachelder's Hair Dye is the best in the world. The only true and perfect Dye—Harmless—Instantaneous and Reliable—produces a splendid Black or Natural Brown—removes the ill effects of Bad Dyes, and frequently restores the original color. Sold by all Drug-gists. The genuine is signed, W. A. Bachelder, S. Barlow street, New York. janevilles

TO CONSUMPTIVES.

COLGATE'S HONEY SOAP.

Pure Collected Toilet Soap, in each universal soap, is made from the choicest materials, is mild and emollient [sic] to the name, fragrantly scented, and extremely beneficial in its action upon the skin. For sale by all Druggists and Fancy goods Dealers.